Opportunity knocks more than once at everyone's door

No age limit on success if you keep fit

PEOPLE used to think that if you passed up one chance to make good, you'd never have another. That if you hadn't made your mark by the time you were 40, you never would. "That's all bunk," people say today.

There's many a man who'll tell you he was past 50 when he made his first big success. Their experience runs something like this.

"I'd been going through life, always just missing out on everything. Worked like a dog, too. But never seemed to get anywhere.

"It was a doctor who put me wise to myself. Told me not to blame it on luck. That the trouble was with me -right inside myself. "He recommended Nujol. I took it for three months. Never missed a half-hearted. day. And, say, I began to feel like a younger brother myself. Decided there was life in the old dog yet. Still time to make good. When my blg chance came, I was all ready, waiting to grab it."

Nujol keeps your body functioning just as Nature meant it to, under all conditions. It's a pure substance that works normally and naturally. It not only keeps an excess of body poisons from forming (we all have them) but aids in their removal. These poisons drag you down, slow you up mentally and physically, dull your whole outlook on life, make you disagree with you (for it contains absolutely no medicine or drugs). And if you're like everyone else it will do you a lot of good. A bottle of Nujol costs no more than a couple of good cigars. Aren't you willing to bet that much on yourself?

BOY CHAINED TO BED THREE DAYS FOUND

Orphan Says He Was Punished for Being Slow-Foster Parents Arrested.

RACINE, Wis., Dec. 20.-Raymond Stratton, 11 years old, was found chained to a bed yesterday in the home of his foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Johnson He is in a hospital while the Johnsons are under arrest, charged with "torturing and cruelly mal-treating a minor child." They told officers, the latter reporter, they saw no harm in chaining the boy so he would not run away while they were at work.

Information that they would "find something," if they went to the Johnson home, led police officers to the discovery of the orphan's plight. A heavy logging chain, with two huge padlocks, held The lad said he had been chained since Sunday. He had been ordered to wash the dishes, he said, and because he was slow at the task, his stepfather upbraided im. Later he was chained.

When the officers entered the place Raymond began to cry, fearing they were truant officers. He told them he wanted to go to school, "but they wouldn't let me." Johnson told police he kept the boy from school for fear he would

Death Warning Letter Similar to Others in Case of Abducted Chicago Lad.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20 .- A letter hreatening death to Judge Robert E. Gantzel was received by the Julge this morning shortly before he took the bench to resume the trial of three defendants accused of the kidnaping of 10-year-old Billy Ranieri.

The letter to the Judge, written on brown paper with a blue cray-one, was mailed at 2 o'clock this morning and was received by him in his chambers as he prepared to open court. The message was scrawled in a scarcely legible hand in an upper corner of the page of

"You are to late," it read, "you are died, now quit your case. It was unsigned but the authorities said the writing was similar to that of threatening letters received by several others involved in the case, including the Ranjeri family and several state witnesses, one of whom, Ole Scully, was assassinated two days ago.

Before Something Happens.

The message was received as Mike Divito, who, the State charged, had been marked for death, was waiting in the courtroom under heavy guard to take the stand. Prosecutors remarked grimly that they wanted his testimony "before something happened to him."

Yesterday, at a hearing before Judge Gentzel, the State opposed the freeing of the suspects in the slaying earlier in the week of Scully by declaring that one of the men held had remarked to a bailiff that Divito would be the next to die.

Judge Gentzel continued the re-lease hearing until tomorrow after prosecutor had maintained that, if the suspects held for the killing of Scully were freed, they would kill Divito. The suspects in clude a brother of Angelo Petitti, ore of the defendants, and Billy's

One Witness in Each Case. Angelo Petitti is said to have ade the threat against Divito. Scully, the prosecution said, was the only witness against Petitti in an extortion case, and Divito is the only witness against him in still another case of similar nature.

The other defendants, Andrew Cappellano and his 16-year-old son. Tony, are alleged to have held the Raneiri boy prisoner for 13 days on their farm near Kankakee, Ill. after Petitti had engineered the kidnaping. Virtually everybody connected with the trial, including Judge, witness and the Ranieri mily, today was under close guard of half a hundred policement from the State's Attorney's office.

Divito testified he had received four letters in two years demanding $2000 under threat that his home would be dynamited. He said he settled for $300 because he had no more money. After 10 state witnesses were reported missing, the state closed its case this afternoon.

THROOP URGES UNION BUILDING FOR WASHINGTON U. CAMPUS

A campus building for the Washington University Union was advocated by Chancellor Throop, in his first public address since he was unanimously chosen Chancellor, at the first annual Christ-mas party of the Union yesterday at the New Jefferson Hotel. Chancellor Throop, who was cheered when he arose to speak, said a union building would provide a requirement not entirely fulfilled by the various fraternity buildings in the entertainment of visitors and alumni. He pointed out that the union, taking in faculty, directors, undergraduates, former students and alumni, was the most representative organization of the university, and declared that a union building would go far in providing leisure hour contacts for the whole group and in developing an integral intellectua and spiritual life at the university.

Board Decides to Build Modern Inclosures Similar to Bear Pits.

A decision to proceed with the modern inclosure for small animals at the zoo, designed for the hill sloping westward from the elephant house, was reached at a meeting of the Zoological Board of Control yesterday. The unit will be of limestone, similar in appearant to the bear pits, and will cost about $25,000. Construction will be started next spring, following the completion of models.

The project is the smaller of two proposed additions which have been pending for several months. Action on the other, the $100,000 "steppe," or oval inclosure for large animals planned-for the hill west of the reptile house, was de-ferred. It met with favorable discussion, however, and was viewed as the only logical replacement for the antiquated paddocks at the eastern extremity of the zoo, where the large animals now are. Some minor changes are planned, and the offering of the corrected prospectus at the next meeting of the Homes for Smaller Animals. The smaller unit will consist of five separated inclosures for prairie togs, wolverines, raccoons, Himalayan sun bears and small American bears. The pits will measure about 40 by 50 feet each and will be aligned at the base of the hill on the southern and western front-ages. Similar to the arrangement at the bear pits, a most will be constructed as a spectators' bar-rier. Dense shrubbery on the hillside behind the pits will prevent the intrusion of visitors walking down from the elephant house. George P. Vierheller, Directed of the Zoo, announced that a prospective tenant of the new unit-an Alaskan wolverine-had just arrived. Only nine days were required for its journey from Cordo-va, in Southeast Alaska. It cost about $200. A second wolverine is on the way and is expected about

The opinion reversed the deci-sion of the Superior Court of Cook County to which the carpenters applied for an injunction to re-strain the Landis Committee from interfering with their trade. More than 300 words of specific instructions were given the Superior Court in the order remanding the case. These include, directions res-training the committee "from combining and conspiring in any man ters or to restrain freedom of contract between the carpenters and their employers; from advising any person to refuse to employ mem-bers of their union; from sending men around buildings in Chicago to represent themselves as deputy sheriffs and carrying concealed weapons, and from doing any other thing to interfere with the car-penters and their employers."

The citizens' committee composed f many of the wealthiest men in Chicago, was organized to enforce the award of Judge K. M. Landis, arbitrator of Chicago's Building Trades war of 1920. The carpenters' union was not a party to the arbitration, and in its bill for an injunction charged the committee had proceeded on the theory that the carpenters did submit to the arbitration. They charged that the Landis committee resorted to unlawful persecution of the carpen ters, calling them outlaws, grafters

ADVERTISEMENT UNABLE TO WORK; NOW WELL AGAIN; PRAISES KONJOLA

Three Years of Kidney Trouble Ended by New Medicine After All Else Had Failed.

"The very medicine I needed in the first place!" "This was the first and only medicine that ever gave me any relief!" How often these expressions occur in the en-dorsements of Konjola, the new medicine, that pour in, day after day, lauding the achievements of this super-compound now to be had in

Mrs. G. Lefevre (Photo by V. Janisch, 720 Olive St.) St. Louis. "How does Konjola do all these wonderful things I hear and read about?" is a question often asked by those who know the remarkable record of successes this super-medicine has achieved over cases that have baffled every treatment and medicine tried. This question, and many others, are being answered daily by the Konjola Man, who is at the Walgreen drug store, 515 Olive street, St. Louis. The Konjola Man's mission is not primarily to sell Konjola. Rather he is in St. Louis to point out exactly what this modern medicine of 32 ingredients means to all who suffer St. Louis. "How does Konjola do gredients means to all who suffer from ills of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, or from nervous-ness. The Konjola Man, who is meeting throngs of sufferers daily, does not deal in promises. He does not need to, for Konjola stands on a bedrock foundation of triumphs a bedrock foundation of triumphs over disease; victories over cases that had been regarded as beyond relief. Those who would be well again want health, not promises. Those who ask for bread do not want a stone. Konjola is a medicine with a record unparalleled in the annals of health. What hope and encouragement is to be found in the happy experience of Mrs. G. Lefevre, 4004 Falm street, St. Louis, who said to the Konjola Man a few days ago:

who said to the Konjola Man a lew days ago:

"I feel it my duty, not only to the producers of Konjola but to all who suffer, to tell what this remarkable medicine did for me. For three years I endured agonies from kidney trouble. An attempt to rise to my feet, after sitting or lying down, caused me to cry out with pain across the back. Sometimes it required three or four minutes before I could stand erect. I h terrible headaches, my feet and an-kles were so swollen that I could get about only with difficulty, and for more than two years I was in for more than two years I was in such a weak and crippled condition that I could not even attempt to do the lightest of housework. The persons not ejected by the weakened kidneys lodged in my system, and I was miserable all over. I had little appetite and had little sleep. But, worst of all, nothing I tried reached my troubles. I could not begin to remember the medicines, treatments and prescriptions I tried in vain.

"My son, who is working in Fort Wayne, Ind., wrote me to get Konjola, and told me that he knew it would help me; that he knew if many, afflicted as I was, who had found quick and lasting relief with many, afflicted as I was, who had found quick and lasting relief with this glorious medicine. You can see for yourself what Konjola did for me. I am better and stronger than in years; free from every ache and pain, and my kidneys and stomach are strong as anyone's. This weaderful compound went directly to work. Within two days I noticed marked improvement, and day by day I could feel disease slipping from me and health returning. I was absolutely well again in just one month. Oh, that I had had Kenjola three years ago; what suffering jola three years ago; what suffering I could have escaped. I make this statement in the hope that it will be the means of others giving Konjola the chance to do what I believe no other medicine in the world can

The records of Konjola fairly overflow with glad experiences like this. Konjola, strange as it may seem, is at the very summit of its amazing powers in stubborn cases. Meet the Konjola Man today. Tou will not be obligated, but will be doing yourself the greatest favor imaginable.

DIRECT AIR MAIL PLAN

Kansas City and Cincinnati Join in Conference Here-Improvements at Lambert Field

While the Air Board conferred with representatives of Cincinnati ar I Kansas City Chmabers of Commerce on the possibility of a direct St. Louis-New York air mail route. the new Airport Commission laid its first tentative plans yesterday for development of Lambert-St. St. Louis Field under the $2,000,-000 bond issue.

The air mail conferees decided on a survey to determine what poundage in mail might be guaranteed the operator of a line running from St. Louis to New York with ops at Cincinnati, Pittsburg and other large cities on the route.

The consensus of opinion was that present air mail service, running over "feeder" lines to the transcontinental route, was generally unsatisfactory, not only because the arrangement necessitated early closing times on air mail, but because the delivery efficiency of the transcontinental route was low-er than that of the "feeder" lines.

At the Airport Commission meet-ing the Technical Committee presented its report of improvements immediately needed at Lambert-St. Louis Field. These include, it was stated, a night lighting system, a concrete "apron" 100 feet wide and 2200 feet long, across the western side of the field, a headquarters building and double hangar for the Thirty-fifth Division Air Service, the revamping of the present National Guard hangars for the Navy and Army reserve squadrens, and the construction of a double commercial hangar which, it was stated, can be rented at once.

The concrete "apron," it was ex-plained, would be useful as a vantage point for visitors, as well as providing a dry place for various work when the field is muddy.

The Airport Commission received the report for consideration and later informally decided that the first work on the field would be that of draining it adequately. The work. of converting Cold Water Creek, which crosses the field, into an adequate drain is already being studied by city engineers.

$400,000 LETTER OF CREDIT FRAUD GANG CAUGHT IN PARIS

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Dec. 20.—A band of alleged international crooks whose depredations during the last two years were said by police to amount to 10,000,000 francs ($400,000) has Police announced that they had been hunting for the men placed under arrest for two years. The members of the band were said to have specialized in altering letters of credit by which they victimized banks in France, England, Argentina, Italy, Spain and Switzerland It was stated that they also were wanted by Swiss and Spanish po-

The men arrested included three Argentines, Jules Cesar Romero. Adolfo de la Fuente and Antonio Valsamo, and two Italians, Luis Habitual Criminal Act. Etta May Miller, recently convicted of a fourth liquor law violation, a felony under Michigan law, stood mute and a plea of not guilty was entered for her today when she was arraigned on a charge of being a habitual criminal. Under the new Michigan criminal code, conviction of four felonies makes a life sentence mandatory.

Counsel for Mrs. Miller demanded a jury trial, a precedent in such cases in this State. Circuit Judge Charles B. Collingwood, who pre-sided when she was convicted of the fourth liquor law violation, set Judge Ossing Allows Koeln $10,000 and Remainder to Law Firms.

Fees totaling $40,000 were alowed yesterday by Circuit Judge Ossing in the receivership of the Liberty Hospital Building Association. They will be paid from funds of the defunct association. The award was distributed as follows:

City Collector Edmond Koeln, as receiver, $10,000. Oliver T. Remmers, former chairman of the Republican City Committee, and the law firm of Taylor, Mayer & Shifrin, as attorneys for the receiver, $15,000. Harry Baer and the firm of Foristel, Mudd, Blair & Habe-nicht, attorneys for plaintiff stockholders in the receivership suit, $15,000. Koeln, who was appointed receiver by Circuit Judge Hall in Octorber, 1927, was ordered by Judge Ossing to wind up the re-ceivership and pay the balance on hand, after deducting fees, to the stockholders of the association. This payment wil constitute a 22 per cent dividend on an investment amounting to approximately $500 .-000. There were 3800 stockholders or certificate owners who invested their savings in the concern How Fees Were Fixed.

Testimony as to the value ervices rendered by counsel and the receiver was heard several months ago and taken under ad-visement. Koeln did not ask for any specific sum, leaving the amount to which he was entitled to the discretion of the court. The attorneys introduced tending to indicate that their serv sum eventually allowed.

Suit for the receiver was filed by four stockholders who alleged that the officers of the association had leased its property at Taylor avenue and Washington boulevard to Dr. John H. Crenshaw for hospital purposes and that no effort was made to force him to pay rent and other obligations which he owed on the lease.

After taking charge of the prop-erty, Koeln operated the hospital for a short time but found that it did not pay, so he closed it, and subsequently, by order of court, sold the building and nurses' home at 4410 Washington boulevard. $263,200. The purchaser was George W. Strodtman, acting for the Good Samaritan Altenheim, $200,000 on Hand. Remmers said yesterday that the 20 per cent dividend, which was the first authorized, will be paid immediately. The receiver, said, has on hand $200,000. cluding interest. A further small dividend may be paid to the stockholders later, it was said. By order of court, the receiver some months ago filed suit against Dr. Crenshaw for $82,000, but this suit is offset by a large counter claim made by Dr. Crenshaw. The suit has not yet come to trial. COOLIDGE SENDS CHRISTMAS GREETINGS TO VETERANS

President Says Nation Has Not Forgotten Sacrifices Made by Men to Make Country Secure.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—President Coolidge has dispatched Christmas greetings to veterans' or ganizations and hospitals throughout the country
"Personally and on behalf of a grateful and sympathetic country, he wrote, "I send you greetings and message of good cheer upon this return of the holiday season.

"As we think of the bountiful benefits now enjoyed by our peo-ple, we cannot and do not forget those who have suffered and do suffer because of injuries and ill health received in the struggle to maintain these benefits secure. The material aids and comforts our Government has extended have been freely given, and will be cheerfully maintained. But, at this time, I want to open to you the heart of the nation, which beats in warm response to your courage and fortitude in bearing your burdens. RABBIT HUNTING WITH

Popular Sport of English Gentry in Third Season in Woods Mill Road District.

Rabbit hunting with beagles, a sport popular among the English gentry for centuries, is in its third season at the Woods Mill Kennels on Woods Mill 'oad, between the Clayton and Conway roads, where five St. Louis business men have introduced the sport and developed a pack of 14 registered hounds. For exercise and pure sport it is superior to golf, polo or fox hunting, its enthusiasts claim. Although the rabbit has a 10-to-1 chance of escaping, the thrill of following on foot the small dogs, none of which stands higher than 15 inches at the shoulder, is not

The quarry depends upon fleetness for safety while the hounds, black, and tan and white, resembling small foxhounds, rely on their sturdy legs, broad, deep chests and their ability to follow the scent and drive the rabbits, which run in an irregular circle, past the hunter. No less important is the beagle's voice, musical in full cry, and responsible for such names as "Bell," "Dainty" and "Music Maker."

Brilliant green coats of the hunters have their value, for the hounds are trained to obey only the hunting staff after they have been "cast in" after the rabbit. The black, belted cap, white corduroy knickers and canvas ank-lets, worn as a protection against briars, complete the attire. Carefully disciplined, the hounds immediately respond to the brass horn of the "master" or a word from the "whips," who, at eith-er side, keep them "in pack." The sport is popular in the East, where it was introduced some 30 years ago. A frame four-room lodge has been built by owners of the kennels. They are: Walter M. Crun-den, vice president of the Crunden-Martin Manufacturing Co.; W. Guy Gamble, president of the Gamble Construction Co.; L. Ray Carter, president of the Commission Co.; Harry H. Lang-enberg, president of the Langenberg Bros. Grain Co. and Charles W. The Trade of the Journalist

There are three kinds of newspapers: aggressive, liberal ones, those dominated by their business offices and smutty tabloids; of the three the second is deemed least desirable because it murders news, a practice revolting to newspaper men.

Excerpts from an article by Richard Owen Boyer in The American Mercury.

ism and journalists in general, but both are conditioned to a great degree by the character of concrete newspapers. There is the journalism and the reporter found in company with aggressive, intelligent, Liberal sheets—and the good Lord knows such newspapers are getting scarcer as the years fly by. There is the journalism and the reporter fostered by the sanctimonious, snivelling sheet that does not believe in the reporting of crime but has a mighty belief in the holiness of its business office. And there is the journalism bred by the tabloid whose mission is to inquire into the intimate details of the movie queen's stomach trouble, and which requires the type of reporter who will crash gate and gateman that he may ask the queen about her ailment.

The first type of paper is found in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, upon which I am proud to say, I worked for four years. Its general policy is agin' everything. It is against the Marines in Nicaragua, against this country's Latin-American policies generally, and all forms of imperialism specifically: it is against Prohibition and the consequent nulliflying of the fourth, and fifth amendments: it is against Andrew Mellon, against Mr. Coolidge in most situations, and always against his silent smugness; it was one of the few papers which in war days did not yield to the hosannahs of the patriots and later demanded and secured the release of the political prisoners under the Espionage Act; bullied the Ku Klux Klan, convincing even klansmen that they were poltroons: it fought tooth and toenail the execution of Sacco and Vanzetti while every business man in its area screeched for their blood: it was largely instrumental in breaking up the warfare that had cursed Southern Illinois for years. after that State had confessed itself help-

He knows that he will never be asked to get a story or write an editorial because it will please a prospective advertiser upon whom the business office is gazing with hungry eye. He knows he will not be ordered to visit a groaning broker. and ask him why his wife ran off with the chauffeur. He knows he will not come in with a corking story and then see it killed because it concerns a friend of the owner.

His work is graced with dignity. If there is any merit in newspaper work, if journalism performs a necessary and healthy function, then it is on such a newspaper as this. Here the reporter is not required to write down on the assumption the reader is a moren. He has the satisfaction of knowing he has contributed to some passing good when he helps remove a passing rascal from office—as the Post-Dispatch

* * * Thus far I have discussed journal- | forced the resignation of Federal Judge English upon the eve of impeachment proceedings against him. He can see the tangible results of his efforts and remain a gentleman while he does his work. In consequence, the type of men on such papers is far superior to the type found on others, and through the possession of their self-respect they attain to a measure of genuine contentment.

> . . . But since there are not enough news-papers of the Post-Dispatch type to accommodate all the newspaper men who must work or starve, many of the trade are forced to seek work e'-ewhere. Perhaps they land on the sort of paper of which the Dallas News, the Bible of Texas, is typical. There are many such papers in the country. They are usually found in the smaller cities, of from 100,000 to 400 .-000 population. Their news columns are clean but surely not exhibarating.

The Dallas News, for example, seldom gives more than a p agraph to the most intriguing of murders. It refuses to print any divorce news, even though the Mayor's wife should allege he ran off with his stenographer. It once said in an editorial that there were certain evils inherent in mankind, and that, since these evils would always be with us, the News would waste no energy in attacking them. It has clung to that Oriental policy.

In its columns one is told, day after day. year in and year out, that the manager of the Chamber of Commerce declares that Dallas is growing, that business is good. that Dallas has a great future. One learns that the First Baptist Church is going to have a picnic, in 600 words. One finds an interview on European relations with the Southwestern sales-manager of the Goodyear Rubber Co. . . . Working on such sheets tends to kill a newspaper man as a newspaper man. He knows that real news is forbidden because it might hurt someone's feeling, and if now and then unwittingly relapses into professional industry the story he obtains is killed when the man it concerns calls up the owner. Ee must accustom himself to seeing news murdered, a practice as revolting to the genuine newspaper man as is malpractice to a physician. To him news seems to be a living thing, above the right of any man to tamper with or suppress it.

The tabloids, and their mother, the Hearst press, with their insatiable prying into human privacies, should no doubt held more reprehensible than the class of papers just described. To a portion of the public they no doubt are, but to the newspaper man they are not. I am writing no brief for lingerie journalism, but at least it recognizes that the primary sources of news, news which will be certain to interest all the public, are found in love, money, conflict and death. Since from these four things most of life emanates, and since newspaper men believe it is the prime function of a newspaper to reflect honestly the life that surrounds it, they know that when working on such a sheet they are at least approaching fournalism, even though through its sewers.

DACKARD pioneered the straight-eight motor I car in America. That fact is well known.

Now, like the vast majority of all multi-cylinder car manufacturers the world over, Packard has standardized the eight-in-line power plant. Every current Packard model is now a Packard Eight. That, too, is well known.

But what is not generally appreciated is that Packard builds three complete lines of Packard Eight cars-the Standard Eight, the Custom Eight and the De Luxe Eight.

The Packard cars in each line are fundamentally alike in engineering design, in quality of materials and craftsmanship, in the characteristic beauty of their body lines. Packard has but one standard. The models in the three lines differ in size, in detailed refinements of body embellishment and in the degree of individuality available to the purchaser in color, upholstery and body styles. Today there is a Packard Eight suited to the requirements of every man or woman who seeks more than mere transportation in a motor car.

The Packard Standard Eight

The new Packard Standard Eight is a powerful, fast and luxurious car, built on two popular chassis lengths-126 inches and 133 inches. The acceleration and smoothness so long associated with the Packard Eight is refined and enhanced in this new car. Every new feature including the unique Packard Shock Absorbing System is found on the Standard models.

RICHMOND, Mo., Dec. 20.—Co: George A. Pickering, 58 years old coal mine operator and a membe of Gov. Baker's staff, was found dead in the street two blocks from his home here shortly after mid night last night.

Evidence pointed to an acciental death. Apparently Co. Pickering had stumbled on a cur ng, staggered forward and struck his head on a fire hydrant at the side of the walk. His neck was broken. In one hand was grasped a half-eaten apple and in the other a handkerchief Considerabi Col. Pickering was president of the School Board. He had served tw terms as Mayor of Richmond. He is survived by Mrs. Pickering, on son, Truman, a student in the State university; a daughter, Ju-dith, and three brothers, Charles, William and Frank.

MRS. RAMIREZ GETS DIVORCE

Thereby Regains English Citizenship; Will Return to Britain. A divorce which restored her British citizenship was granted pesterday to Mrs. Nancy Ramirez, 1242 Purdue avenue, University City, from Antonio Ramirez, a Mexican, by Circuit Judge Killoren in the Court of Domestic Relations. She alleged general indignities and desertion.

Mrs. Ramirez testified that her husband had beaten and slapped her, and April 7, 1928, had deserted her. She said she intended to return to England, but could not obtain a passport until the court restored her British citizenship, which she lost when she married Ramirez in 1925. Custody of their 2-year-old son, Arthur, was awarded to her.

Extra Compensation Ranges From 8 1-2 to 100 Per Cent This Year.

By Leased Wire from the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, Dec. 20 .- Christnas in Wall Street and big busiess this year means larger bonuses. The extra compensation ranges from the 81/2 per cent of the yearly salary which the Guaranty Trust

Co. announced yesterday to the 100 per cent with which some brokerage houses have rewarded key employes who spent long hours trying to keep track of a frenzied stock market. Approximately 5600 employes of the Brooklyn Edison Co. yesterday received $633,239 as a Christmas present under the employes profitsharing plan. Since inception of the plan 19 years ago the company has paid out $3,670,000. Employes of the Postal Tele-graph & Cable Corporation will find vacations with pay in their Christmas stocking. All workers, including messengers, who will have been with the corporation a year by July 1, 1929, will receive week's vacation with pay.

Wall Street houses already have paid bonuses ranging from one to 12 weeks' pay to 10 to 80 per cent of the yearly salary. Among the bonus announcenents yesterday were the follow-Prisco State Bank, 10 per cent: J. W. Prisco & Co., 10 to 20, per cent; American Exchange-Irving Trust Co., four weeks' pay; Engel & Cu., 20 per cent; Martin Peerls & Co., one month's pay. All employes of the Guaranty Trust subsidiaries, including the Guaranty Co., Guaranty Safe Deposit Co., Fidelities Realty Corporation and Guaranty Executors & Trustee Co., will receive the 81/2 er cent extra payment. Certain employes who have given extra service will be paid at a higher

The puck salled on a line about the height of Anlerson's shoulders. The goaltender, trying to knock it down to one of his own men, let the puck hit his glove and it slithered down his arci into the net for what proved to be the winning score. For while the Flyers strove valiantly to make up the two-goal deficit which they faced after that break, they were able to count but once.

These were all the penalties assessed by Referee Sills.

The crowd showed its displeasure when Seaborn was sent to the box, giving the referee a round of boos. However, that was light abuse for Sills, who not so long ago was showered with a collection of junk by a Duluth audience when he appeared to favor the St. Louis team by a decision.

Such things do not bother Sills, for he says the spectators pay for an evening's entertainment and if it helps them any to razz him, it's all right.

Anderson Stops Many Shots.

Despite his two lapses, Anderson played a good game in the St.

Many Games Lost Because of Failure to Score Free Shots

Herewith is the fifteenth of a series of instructive articles on basketball, written for the Post-Dispatch by C. O. Benson, assistant coach at Washington University. Others will follow.

By C. O. Benson Of the Washington U. Coaching S No. 15.—THE FOUL SHOT.

THE importance of a team having good foul throwers cannot be overestimated. Many games are won and lost on free throws. Free throwing is as much a matter of mind as technique. A free thrower must always think he can make his shot. He must think that it is impossible to miss the goal. A team of good free throwers will have a demoralizing effect on the opponents. The one essential thing to remember is to be relaxed at all times. There are many styles of free throwing. Many players prefer the underhand shot. There is no definite technique but the style depends on the individual. A foul thrower is making a good record if he makes seven out of every 10 tries. After trying out different methods of foul shooting the following method has proved successful: Place one foot back of the other an extreme distance, the legs far enough apart so that with a short squat the sithout scrimmage accompanied by permen and special writers are southern route, via leans and as the shot is being started, the first movement is out parallel with the floor, then upward keeping the elbows locked. The ball swings between the legs essential thing to remember is to keep the elbows locked dur-ing the entire throw, the arms moving from the shoulders only.

Eyes should be on the basket during the entire throw. There should be a good follow through.

through. The important thing to remember is to be relaxed and to think that you cannot miss it.

The St. Louis University basketball team registered its fourth straight victory of the season last night when the Billikens, led by Captain Ham Strong, defeated the McKendree College five of Lebanon. Ill., 40 to 19.

The outstanding feature of the game was the defense of the Billikens. Hunt and Joyce, the starting guards, and later Anderson and Lintzenich, succeeded in keeping the visitors from scoring a field goal until the last eight minutes

Bills Take Early Lead.

The Bills jumped to an early lead when Oldfield scored a field goal shortly after the opening whistle. A long shot by Les Hunt, two free throws and a field goal by Drury increased the St. Louis lead. Hubbell of the visitors then dropped in two free throws to make the score 8 to 2... Ham Strong dribbled the length of the floor to drop in another field goal. After Hubbell made good another free throw for McKendree, Drury sank two field goals in quick succession and Strong added another. Hubbell dropped in another free throw to break the monctony and then the Bills were off on another scoring spree. The half

Second Team Goes in. The St. Louis second team again took the floor to start the second half. A basket by Plunkert and two field goals by Willits boosted the score to 32 to 8, after Culver of the visitors had registered on free throw and the Billiken regulars entered the game again. Frohart of McKendree got hold of the ball on a short shot under the Billiken hoop to score his team's first field goal. Drury scored on a free throw and Hunt dropped in a long shot to make the score 36-11. Hubbell then sank another field goal for McKendree and added four points for his team by sinking four successive free retirement, Tex Rickard, who is reported as having said "the publie will not accept any man as champion today until he has beaten Jack Dempsey," is laying plans for Jack to face the elimination winner next September. He hints that he has reached an understanding with Jack. A St. Louisan just returned from California states that he heard Dempsey tell a gathering of friends that he would be back in the ring next year. Evidently the idea is to get Dempsey knocked out in order to give the public a false impres-sion of merit on the part of the man who turns the trick. The whole thing smacks of a conspiracy to lure Dempsey into a trap balted heavily with guarantees and send the grand old relic into a shambles.

Don't Do It, Jack.

D EMPSEY, we hope, will defeat the plan through his native common sense. He should hold to his promise of retirement. If he trained an entire year he could not get into the top form again. His legs are when the legs are through, the end of the athlete is in sight.

Jack was at the end of his string in 1927 at Chicago. With victory almost in his grasp, his fighting range of his near victim. He was a pitiful spectacle at the close of the fight-all in, down and out. Only his courage saved him a knockout.

Now, two years after, Dempsey can only be an echo of "Jack the Giant Killer" of 1919. Undoubtedly he would be knocked out, if he failed to land one of his own wallops within two rounds. His chance of victory would be remote and the probability of his suffering the only real knockout of his career very

Good Light Heavyweights May Have the Final Word In Fight for Tunney's Title

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—It has been demonstrated before that a good light-heavyweight, or even a first-class middleweight, such as was Bob Fitzsimmors at one time, can clean up the heavyweight

There is a distinct need for some such cleaning up as the campaign of 1929 is about to get under way and it would not be surprising to see the task performed by one or the other of these light-heavy weight products--Tommy Lough ran and W. L. (Young) Stribling.

Speed and skill have been accomplishing as much, if not considerably more, than the old-fashoned sock in this heavyweight era Loughran and Stribling have ooth A long string of knockouts is also produced to ballyhoo the so cailed Stribling sock but the Geo gian outside the barnstorming circuit sound impressive enough until the SIXTH GAME. Two of Ohio's noted Bridge play-ers. Eugene R. Buss and C. J. McDiaruid of Cincinnati, were the opponents of Mr. Work and Mr. Whitehead in the sixth of this season's Radio Bridge Games broalcast yesterday from KSD.

The hands were: Mr. Whitehead.

Dealer, South: Spades, 16, 6, 2; Hearts, A. 5; Diamonds, 4, 3; Clubs, K. Q. J. 2, 7, 2, Mr. Buss, West: Spades, A. Q. J. 5: Hearts, K. 4. 10. 6, 2; Diamonds, K. J. 10; Clubs, 4. Mr. Work, North. Spades, 9, 8, 7, 4; Hearts, 7; Diamends, A. Q. 7, 5, 2; Clubs, A. 8, 2. Mr. McDiarmid, East: Spades. K, 3: Hearts, J, 9, 8, 4, 3: Dia-monds, 9, 8, 6: Clubs, 10, 6, 5.

Mr. Whitehead began the auction with one Club, which Mr. Buss, West, doubled informatively, thus inviting a Major bid from his partner on four or more cards of a Major suit, in preference to a stronger four or five-card Minor. This seemed the best way to find out which of the Major suits, both of them strong in Mr. Buss' own hand, suited his partner better.

To prevent, if possible, a re-ponse to this double from East. Mr. Work, North, at once bid four Clubs, thus giving in one jump bid the full three-assist strength of his hand. His bid accomplished its purpose, as Mr. Diarmid. East, passed. He felt that his hand was too weak for a four-heart bid, aithough he would have declared three Hearts had Mr. Work's bid been only three Clubs. He would have bid one Heart if Mr. Work

Mr. Buss, West, opened the king of hearts, the correct lead from a two remaining trumps, giving Mr. king, queen, ten. Mr. Work spread his hand for dummy, and Mr. Whitehead his contract, five clubs doubled for which he scored 60 points in the trick score, with 50 it the singleton 7 of hearts. Mr. McDiarmid played the 2, and de-clarer won with the acc. points for four honors divided. As West's, strong hand, so that a finesse of the queen probably would win; in which case declarer would lose no diamond trick. There remained three losing spades in his contract would be set one trick.

The only way he could obtain a discard of one or two of his losing spades would be to establish dummy's diamonds. This he saw he could do, if the adverse diamonds. This he saw he could do, if the adverse diamonds that no accurrence is the first round would be even informatory double, and North's jump to four clubs would be justified in contract for the same reasons that made them sound in auction. There would be even more reason for East's passing in contract than in auction, because of the severe monds were divided 3-3, by a suc-cessful finesse of the queen, fol-tract. lewed by the play of dummy's ace and then by the lead of a third

But to bring in dummy's established diamonds, three trumps must be left in dummy's hand to provide for the very possible holding of three trumps by one of the adversaries. Declarer could then with the third round of trumps with dummy's ace, and secure two spade discards on dummy's last two diamonds, thus limiting his loss to one and that he had six clubs (one more than his initial bid had his bid with some trepidation because its success, viewing only his own hand plus the strength his partner must have for the triple

If the adverse trumps were di-vided 2-2, only two rounds of game would be too great to cast rumps would be necessary; in which case dummy's third trump could be utilized in ruffing a heart, thus giving declarer a small slam.

played the 3 of clubs; Mr. McDiarmid the 6.

Since Mr. McDiarmid still held trumps again, instead of using dummy's last trump to ruff his losing heart. Declarer, therefore, led
